UNIONS STUDY
NEXT STEP IN
RAIL DISPUTETRAINS STILL RUN
BUT WAGE FIGHT IS UP IN AIR

BY HAROLD W. WARD

Washington, May 12 (AP)—Union members under a court order to keep the nation's trains running for the Army today awaited the government's next move to settle their wage dispute.

When or in what form the move will come was not clear.

The government has a full week of grace before the threat of a nationwide railroad strike may arise again.

During that week the three unions involved must decide whether to fight the anti-strike edict in court or simply leave the whole burden of proof up to justice department lawyers.

Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough, who averted yesterday's threatened walkout by issuing a temporary restraining order after the government had seized the railroads, set a hearing for next Wednesday on whether the injunction should be made permanent.

Demands Pared Down
Brotherhood attorneys said today the union strategy decision has not yet been reached.

Policy committees were standing by to pass on that and any other developments in the 11-month-old pay battle.

The union chiefs met with Secretary of the Army Royal yesterday and came away saying his authority to enforce the dispute remained a question.

The three Brotherhood leaders—Alvaney Johnston of the Locomotive Engineers, David B. Robertson of the Firemen and Enginemen and Arthur J. Glover of the Switchmen—contended in a news conference earlier today that the government wanted to transform an emergency board's recommended settlement into compulsory arbitration.

They said that in the final stages of the wage talks before the government seizure order they had agreed to cut aside their 30 percent wage increase demand. Instead, they said they had agreed to take the 15½ cents an hour suggested by the presidential board plus a few operating rules changes which they said would not involve much money.

In fact, the union heads argued, the rules changes actually would save management money by boosting operating efficiency.

Spokesmen for the railroads responded with a formal statement saying that the three unions had refused the same wage settlement which the 19 other rail unions had accepted, and "were determined to use the strike club to get (their demands), irrespective of consequences to others."

Firemen Save Dozen
Infirm Persons In Benton Harbor Fire

Benton Harbor, Mich., May 12 (AP)—Benton Harbor firemen evacuated a dozen aged persons, some crippled and one partially blind, when fire threatened their second-floor apartments in a business block at 153 Territorial Road opposite the post office this forenoon.

Firemen subdued the flames before extensive damage was done, but the aged occupants of the building were trapped by dense clouds of smoke. None suffered serious effects, firemen reported.

All city fire apparatus responded to a general alarm.

Strike Of 75,000
Ties Up Chrysler

Detroit, May 12 (AP)—The CIO's 75,000 Chrysler Corp. employees struck today for a third round of postwar wage increases.

Governor Sigler immediately ordered a complaint against the strikers under Michigan's new Bonine-Tripp Labor Law.

It requires that the state take a strike vote before workers can walk out. The CIO United Auto Workers contend it does not apply when a firm has plants outside of Michigan.

Sigler told reporters that he had asked the State Labor Mediation Board to make a complaint to Wayne County (Detroit) Prosecutor James McNally. Under the law, McNally then could ask a court injunction.

"Either the law is good or it isn't," Sigler said. "If it's constitutional, we might as well find out now."

Meanwhile, Briggs Manufacturing Co. said 13,000 workers in its six Detroit plants would be laid off by Monday because of the strike. Briggs supplies Chrysler with bodies.

Workers streamed from the Detroit area Chrysler plants quietly, a few sang. Many joined picket lines to bear placards reading:

"We are on the picket line because we can't buy the things we need" and "my wife can't buy pork and beans on sympathy."

DRAFT SNAGGED
ON RACE ISSUEHot Southern Senators
Promise Fight

BY EDWIN E. HARRISON

Washington, May 12 (AP)—The Senate's Military Manpower Bill bumped head today into the explosive race segregation issue.

Even before the compromise measure blending a five-year draft revival with a voluntary training program for 18-year-olds hit the floor officially, angry Southern Senators promised a red hot fight.

And when southerners tallied fight in the Senate they often mean filibuster.

What they want is a provision in the bill guaranteeing every enlisted man the right to serve only in a unit of "his own race."

Senator Russell (D-Ga.) asked the armed services committee to approve such an amendment yesterday, but the committee turned him down 7 to 4.

Russell added this: "I cannot vote to take boys of my state between the ages of 18 and 26, against their desires, into the armed services with the definite knowledge that the commander-in-chief proposes to intermingle all of the races at the first opportunity."

Kissing Governor
Hopes to Toss Out
Paternity Charge

Cullman, Ala., May 12 (AP)—Attorney Gen. Gov. James E. Folsom today is swinging a knockout blow today at the paternity suit brought against the newly married executive by an attractive red-haired divorcee.

They were prepared to argue before Circuit Judge J. H. Crow, Jr., that Mrs. Christine Putnam Johnston's complaint is legally invalid and should be thrown out of court.

Mrs. Johnston, 30-year-old former Birmingham hotel employee, charges that the six-foot eight-inch governor is her common-law husband and the father of her two-year-old son, James Douglas.

Folsom, married just a week ago to a pretty state employee, Janelle Moore, was not expected to appear in court for today's technical arguments. Neither was Mrs. Johnston.

Subpoenas Issued
In Cigarette Tax
Evasion Smuggling

Lansing, May 12 (AP)—The state revenue department reported today it has issued 17 subpoenas in Grand Rapids and vicinity in a drive to stamp out cigarette smuggling in violation of the new state cigarette tax.

Deputy Commissioner Clarence W. Lock said names of the individuals subpoenaed would not be made public because of secrecy provisions of the statute. He said the subpoenas issued were for people importing substantial quantities of cigarettes and that some of the persons were believed to be operating a cigarette pool.

A flood of workers from the Dodge main plant jammed traffic for 20 minutes. Guards threw the main gates wide to allow the men and women out.

Food and sandwiches were awaiting pickets. Union members were preparing it two hours before the strike deadline.

Within an hour all 12 Chrysler plants in Michigan were idle. There are three more in Indiana and one in California.

Picket Cal Moorehead, parading before the big Dodge main plant, told reporters "it looks like a long strike."

"This will probably be tough," he added.

Picketing was quiet. Union headquarters said the first workers out were those at the Dodge truck plant. They jumped the gun by 30 minutes.

The union already is raising a million dollar "kitty" to finance the walkout.

Lower Michigan
Floods Ease Up

(By The Associated Press)

Flood dangers abated today (Wednesday) for rain-soaked Southern Michigan.

The swollen Clinton river dropped two feet last night, giving 200 evacuated families hope of an early return to their homes in the Kibbie Flats section of Mt. Clemens.

Also reported receding was the Rouge river, which spilled over yesterday and forced 150 Dearborn households to seek higher ground.

In two other flood areas—Lansing and Grand Rapids—river waters continued to rise slightly, but conservation department officials and weather forecasters expressed confidence the levels would not reach the crests they hit earlier this spring.

No sunny skies are predicted yet for the lower section of the state, but the weather man said the downpours of the last few days would taper off to a drizzle.

In Mt. Clemens, where the Clinton stood at 18½ feet, 160 families were housed by the Red Cross and the local civic center. Others found refuge in private homes. Field kitchens from Selfridge Field were set up.

The flooding Red Cedar river forced residents of the Cooper

Trailer Camp at East Lansing to vacate their mobile homes. State and local police manned rowboats to get several low-ground dwellers away from the swirling waters.

Three feet of water covered the Michigan State College baseball field and practice football grounds as well as the parking space adjoining the Macklin Field football stadium.

DEWEY WEIGHS
RUSSIAN OFFERGood News If It's True,
Says GOP Leader

BY B. L. LIVINGSTONE

Baker, Ore., May 12 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey regards with "cautious cheer" Russia's expressed readiness to discuss existing differences with the United States.

"If they mean it, it is the best news since V-J day," he said. "If they don't mean it, well—it will be just what has happened about every six months."

As titular head of the Republican party, the New York governor called for avoidance in new American consultations of "any repetition of the tragic mistakes" made by the administration at Yalta, Potsdam, Teheran and the Moscow conferences.

Dewey stated his position before an Oregon primary campaign rally at Ontario, Ore., yesterday. It followed a broadcast by radio Moscow that the Soviet Union was ready to pursue a "policy of peace and cooperation with the United States."

"I hope," he said, "that we have finally learned as a nation that you cannot buy peace by appeasement. All you do is make trouble."

In spite of a touch of laryngitis, Dewey pushed his campaign for Oregon's presidential preference in the May 21 primary election with his usual vigor. The strain on his ailing throat prompted him to facetiously call himself a "whispering Tom."

Historic Coburg
Castle Looted Of Priceless Items

Coburg, Germany, May 12 (AP)—Military government officials said today thieves have robbed historic Coburg castle of priceless art objects, which German police valued at $200,000.

The loot included two silver clocks presented to the Duke of Coburg by Queen Victoria of Britain, and three paintings.

Military government officials said the thieves entered the castle—now an art museum—by removing the iron bars from a window. They cut the paintings from their frames. A solid silver ship model, apparently too heavy to abduct, was found lying outside the building.

Coburg castle, which dates back to the 13th century, once was the residence of the Dukes of Saxe-Coburg.

State School Gets
All Smelted Down

Laconia, N. H., May 12 (AP)—The staff and inmates of the Laconia state school never want to see a smelt again.

They have been on a steady diet of the fish since last weekend when municipal court gave the school 700 pounds of smelt seized from poachers.

The staff and inmates finally hollered quits today.

YOUNG FARMER
FREED BY JURYYouth Found Not Guilty
Of Killing Sweetheart

Marshall, Mich., May 12 (AP)—Earl Kent, 20-year-old farmer, was free today of a charge of murdering his high school sweetheart, Flavian Watkins.

A circuit court jury of seven women and five men acquitted young Kent early today after more than seven hours deliberation. The decision—returned at 1 a. m. (EST)—was greeted with cheers by a packed courthouse.

During Kent's week-long trial the defense had contended the pretty 16-year-old girl took her own life with a rifle blast March 24. Kent testified he had visited Flavian at her farm home near Burlington and had broken their engagement shortly before she was found fatally wounded. He insisted he left her unharmed but hysterical.

The dark, curly-haired defendant took the verdict calmly. Then he went with his father to the family's new home in Marengo township near here.

None of the Watkins family was present when the verdict was announced. Judge Blaine W. Hatch had warned the crowd against any demonstration, and when cheering began he quickly silenced the spectators.

Turkish Navy Gets
4 U. S. Submarines

Izmir, Turkey, May 12 (AP)—U. S. Navy crewmen brought four American submarines into Izmir harbor yesterday to be turned over to the Turkish Navy.

Formal presentation of the four undersea boats to Turkey under the U. S. aid program will be made in two weeks, about May 23. The vessels—the Blueback, Boarfish, Chun and Brill—left New London, Conn., April 19.

70-Year-Old Wolf

Manila, May 12 (AP)—A 100-year-old Filipino widow complained to police today that she was the object of amorous advances by a 70-year-old unwelcome suitor.

Mrs. Augustine Aco said she resented Mariano Gabriela's attitude. So much so, she added, that she whacked him soundly over the head with a board and sent her daughter to call the cops.

Party Harmony
Sought In Deal
With Gov. Sigler

BY JACK I. GREEN

Lansing, May 12 (AP)—Republican leaders and legislators were reported today to be seeking a deal by which Governor Sigler would withdraw his governmental reorganization plan in the interest of party harmony.

The report spread in the capital as the Citizens Committee for Good Government in Michigan, Inc., prepared to start the circulation of petitions to put Sigler's plan on the November ballot. They need 167,000 signatures by July 2.

The new strategy is said to propose that the legislature agree, when it returns May 20, to pass some form of a department of administration bill if Sigler will agree to withdraw his plan to merge all state agencies into 18 departments.

The special legislative session previously had defeated Sigler's proposal to create a new department of administration. It was then that Sigler announced he would "go to the people" with a more drastic revision, the 18-department idea.

Informed legislative sources said that high Republican leaders, reportedly Arthur E. Summerfield, national committeeman, and John A. Wagner, state chairman, sought some means of keeping Sigler's governmental reorganization plan off the ballot for fear of a wide-open split in the Republican party during an election year.

These sources said the Republican party organization fears that Sigler's plan will put many party workers and candidates with the embarrassing position of having to endorse Sigler for reelection, yet fight the governmental reorganization which he has said means more to him than reelection.

It was established that a "compromise" bill creating a department of administration was being drafted in line with the party strategy.

PHONE WORKERS
SET TO STRIKELong Distance Operators
In Wage Dispute

BY NORMAN WALKER

Washington, May 12 (AP)—A possible nationwide strike of long distance telephone operators hinges today on a new government try at settling the union-company wage dispute.

John J. Moran, president of the CIO American Telephone Workers union, said a strike date will be set if the government negotiations fail.

"Nobody pays much attention to you until you inconvenience them," Moran told a reporter. "I guess John L. Lewis has the right idea."

Moran—whose union represents 23,000 long distance workers in 42 states—was due to meet with representatives of the American Telephone and Telegraph company and conciliators of the federal mediation service at an afternoon conference (1 p. m. EST).

The union wants a 30-cent wage boost, a shortened work week and larger pensions. It says workers now average $1.21 an hour.

A. T. & T.'s proposal for a two-year contract extension with no immediate wage increase was rejected.

A. T. & T.—Parent company of the Bell Telephone system—at first informed the mediation service that transfer of the deadlocked negotiating sessions here from New York would be useless. But the service said the company later agreed to be represented today.

A. T. & T.'s contract with Moran's union expired at midnight Saturday. A strike could be called at any time.

Shipment of Gold

Is Stolen in India

Bangkok, May 12, (AP)—The criminal investigation division announced between 20 and 30 armed bandits today stole an international gold shipment valued at $2,000,000.

The shipment was enroute to Macao from London on a KLM (Dutch) plane that stopped at Bangkok overnight.

The bandits, disguised as Siamese police and soldiers, halted a truck carrying 120,000 grams of gold to the customs house for safe keeping.

Nine guards were handcuffed. The bandits escaped.

RUSSIAN MOVE TO DEAL WITH
U. S. ANALYZEDAMERICA WONDERS
WHAT DISPUTE
COMES FIRST

BY DONALD B. SCHWIND

London, May 12 (AP)—Western Europe's rekindled hopes for prolonged peace were reflected today in urgent demands for the United States and Russia to get together and settle their differences, no matter whose idea it was.

"America is big enough and strong enough and earnest enough in her will to peace to take up Mr. (Russian Foreign Minister V. M.) Molotov's offer without loss of face or prestige," the Daily Express said, and the same view was echoed in almost all other London papers.

Their idea, and that of other quarters in western Europe, was that the fact Molotov in the early hours yesterday seized the opportunity to "accept" what he chose to interpret as an invitation for Soviet-American conferences could not be dismissed entirely as propaganda, even though his statement had all the trappings of propaganda.

"A chance is offered, if a slender one, of a way out," the Manchester Guardian said editorially.

No New Policy
The same air of cautious and wary optimism appeared over most of western Europe, but there was some downright pessimism, notably in Berlin.

Most of the papers seemed inclined to accept the American version of the American-Russian diplomatic exchange in Moscow last week, as voiced yesterday by President Truman and amplified by his foreign policy advisers.

"The American version of the events must be accepted," said the Express, "for it was from Washington that the initiative sprang and the state department must know best what was in its mind."

President Truman said the two salient points made by Ambassador Walter B. Smith in his talk with Molotov last week were that the United States intended to pursue "vigorously and firmly" its policy of aiding western Europe; and that the United States "has no hostile or aggressive designs" toward Russia. He avoided any commitment concerning direct negotiations.

Some of his advisers, however, said there would be no talks unless there was some agreement before and about what the conferences would talk about.

Washington, May 12 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall said today that if Russia is seriously interested in improving world conditions there is urgent need for actions through the United Nations.

In a news conference statement, Marshall ruled out the possibility of a direct two-nation settlement

DELTA POLITICS STARTING HERE

Candidates Begin To Bud In Political Field

In this year of county, state and national elections, the warmth of political fervor is already causing adherents to begin the circulation of nominating petitions for budding candidates at the local level.

Petition forms have been obtained at the office of County Clerk J. Theodore Ohlen, who is also being questioned (four months ahead of the primary) about dates for filing and the number of signatures required for nomination.

Briefly the calendar of political events is as follows:

Aug. 17, 4 p. m. (EST)—Last day for filing nominating petitions.

Sept. 14—County primary election.

Nov. 2—General election.

Nomination petitions must be signed only by registered and qualified voters, and in number equal to not less than 1 per cent and not more than 4 per cent of the number of votes cast for the secretary of state at the last preceding November election.

The county clerk said this formula would require Republican nominating petitions to carry not less than 46 nor more than 183 signatures; and Democratic petitions not less than 51 nor more than 203 signatures. The Republican vote for secretary of state at the election two years ago was 4569 and the Democratic vote 5054 in Delta county.

At the county primary the voters will nominate party candidates for all county elective offices; and in a non-partisan ballot for judge of probate and court commissioners.

Veterans' Farm Training Conference Is Held Here

State Aeronautics Conference To Be Held In Lansing

Major problems confronting Michigan's aviation industry will be discussed by nationally recognized authorities at the third annual Michigan aeronautics conference at the Hotel Olds in Lansing May 27 and 28, it was announced here today.

Among the outstanding speakers will be Arthur Hook, assistant administrator for airports, C. A. A.; Hugh DeHaven, director of crash injury research; Carl Voelter, airport manager and operation specialist, C. A. A.; and Frank Young, chief of Trans Canada Airline operations.

Michigan is believed to have the biggest G. I. flight training program of any state in the nation. Currently, approximately 5,000 veterans are receiving training in 244 aviation schools at 212 licensed airports and 18 seaplane bases. All schools are being inspected periodically and safety requirements are being rigidly enforced.

Organizations sponsoring the state aeronautics conference are the Aero Club of Michigan, Aircraft Owners and Pilots association, Aviation Association of Michigan, Michigan department of aeronautics, Michigan Municipal league, Michigan Chapter Ninety-Nines and Michigan Department, American Legion Aviation committee.

Here from Lansing for the conference are Elmer Lightfoot and John Doneth of Michigan State college, and Raymond Clark of the state department of public instruction.

The conference includes group sessions for the administrative and instructional phases of the program, with a general session scheduled for 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Purpose of the conference is to aid veterans on the farm in learning good farm and financial practices, which combined can make for successful farming. Many veterans have obtained loans to purchase farms or farm equipment, and it is proposed to assist them in "coming out on top" in their venture by following recommended practices.

The conference included trips to the Ed Vian farm at Bark River, where typical problems of the veteran who bought a farm and is "working his way out" are presented.

J. L. Heirman, Delta county agricultural agent, is assisting Doneth in the work of the instructional group at the conference.

Little Bay De Noc May Be Answer To Fast Pike Fishing

Is the Bay de Noc at Escanaba, Mich., the answer to the walleye fisherman's demand for some fast fishing?

This question was asked by a Chicago newspaperman upon receipt of a letter from Kenneth Christensen, Escanaba commercial fisherman, in which the latter said the sport of walleye fishing on Little Bay de Noc can't be equaled anywhere.

Christensen said the bay provided some fast fishing last season, even better than in 1946, and that anglers were standing by now eagerly awaiting the start of the 1948 season May 21. Their hopes are high that the walleyes will hit like they did last season.

May 21 is the opening date in Lake Michigan and Lake Superior except on some inland lakes in Lower Michigan. In inland lakes north of highway M-46, May 15 is the opening date, and in those south of M-46, anglers must wait until June 25.

In Wisconsin, the walleyed pike fishing season opens May 15.

Bathing Beach Problem

THE problem of where to locate the permanent municipal bathing beach apparently is still a long way from being solved. The city recreation board has been studying the problem for months and after once reversing itself the board finally recommended that the beach be established on the north shore of Sand Point, where the temporary beach is now located.

If it were feasible to establish a permanent beach on the natural shoreline of Ludington Park, there is no doubt that an overwhelming majority of local citizens would favor that. The sand-sucking operations of recent years, however, have gouged out dangerous holes inside the lagoon and it is no longer practical to establish a swimming area there. Also the engineers claim that the movement of water inside the lagoon is inadequate to assure clean water for bathers.

A permanent bathing beach could be established off the artificial island that has been built up at the park through several years of sand-sucking operations. This is in conformity to the original plan, although such a beach would be delayed a couple years to complete work now under way. The installation of sewage facilities for a bathhouse on the island would, of course, be somewhat complicated and rather expensive. There is also a safety factor involved because of the dangerous waters within the lagoon.

Nevertheless, there are a number of persons who dislike the north shore beach and still prefer to have the permanent beach located at Ludington Park, where sharp winds are blunted by the background of the park hill and the row of homes on Lake Shore Drive. High school students who served as city councilmen in the school's "government for a day" program Monday unanimously expressed preference for the Ludington Park beach. Undoubtedly their viewpoint is shared by many adults, particularly those who recall the fine bathing beach that existed at Ludington Park in bygone years.

For this summer at least the beach must necessarily be located at the north shore but a decision should be made soon as to where the permanent beach ultimately should be established. If it is to be on the north shore, some work can be started immediately towards developing the area, landscaping the grounds, installing permanent facilities, etc. If it is to be at Ludington Park, expenditures at the north shore beach should necessarily be restricted to minimum, temporary needs.

The recreation board, the planning commission and the city council are all studying the problem but the most satisfactory solution depends upon the proper interpretation of public opinion. It would be well if local civic and club organizations discussed the problem and helped to arrive at the proper answer.

Garbage Collections

GARBAGE collection at one time was a comparatively minor although important service performed by city crews but in recent years the cost of garbage collection has risen alarmingly and not only because labor costs have gone up.

The amount of garbage being collected in Escanaba now is double what it was a few years ago. Perhaps one reason for the sudden boost is an elevated living standard. More people are eating better now than they have in many years and, unfortunately, the wastage is also at an all time high, even despite exceptionally high food costs.

A more important reason for increased garbage collection, however, is the development of heating conversions to gas, oil and central steam, which have no provision for garbage incineration in the home or store. Garbage that formerly was consumed in the family furnace now is dumped in containers to be hauled away by the municipal garbage collectors.

The arrival of a second new garbage truck, with enclosed body and hydraulic lifts, completely modernizes the city's garbage collection department. With public cooperation, the cost of garbage collection can be lowered at the same time that service is improved through the use of more efficient garbage trucks. It means, however, that householders will have to place their garbage in containers and put the containers out near the alley on the day that pickups are scheduled in their neighborhood. Too much time is now being wasted in collection of garbage containers placed in or near the home.

The longer run to the dumping grounds on the old state road, a nine mile round trip, means that faster pickups will be necessary to avoid the use of a third or even a fourth truck for garbage collections. Until recently the garbage was being dumped along the lake shore, across from the athletic field, to fill in the low spots there. It was a short run, a convenience justly abandoned because of objections from adjacent property owners.

It is important that householders understand the problem so that they can realize the need for cooperation in their own interests and in the interests of the taxpayers as a whole.

Court Bans Railroad Strikes

THE government moved Monday night to take the only action at its disposal to prevent a disastrous strike that would have stilled the nation's vast railroad system.

First the government seized the railroads, acting on a 1916 law that has been lying around all these years just waiting for such an emergency. Then the government secured a court injunction ordering the railroad brotherhoods to revoke their strike call. The brotherhoods quickly responded and the strike was averted.

Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough was the man who issued the federal court injunction. He is the same judge who twice slapped similar injunctions against John L. Lewis in similar national labor emergencies and the same judge who cracked down heavily with stiff fines against Lewis and the coal miners union for disobeying the injunctions.

Labor organizations have bitterly fought against the use of court injunctions in labor disputes, but as long as unions in basic industries are exempt from the provisions of the anti-trust laws, the court injunction remains the public's sole defense against economic strangulation at the hands of labor bosses. Without such a weapon the railroads would be idle today, the mails would be greatly disrupted, freight shipments would be merely a dribble. In fact we would be well on the way to economic chaos. And all because three of 22 railroad brotherhoods refused to accept the terms of a new contract that the 19 other brotherhoods regarded as fair and satisfactory.

The time has come when it must be accepted as necessary public protection that bans be established against strikes that would shut down all of the railroads at one time, or all of the coal mines, or all of the mills in the steel industry. Industry-wide strikes must be abolished and until a better weapon is fashioned, the court injunction must be used to serve the purpose.

Planned Confusion

It is apparent that the restoration of price control will be a major political issue this year, and that it will cut across party lines.

To the uninitiated, the idea is obviously appealing. It suggests the economic Utopia of a low cost of living coupled with the highest family incomes we have ever earned.

It is difficult to puncture so pretty a balloon as this. Yet it is necessary to report that no economist of reputation thinks that price control would work, or that it would create anything except chaos. It has been an utter failure in Europe—even when the toughest police state methods have been used in an attempt to make it a success. Manufacturers and farmers refuse to produce foods and commodities on which an arbitrary low price deprives them of profit. Scarce items—including many basic necessities—can be purchased only in the black market at fantastic prices. The big money is earned by racketeers and gangsters. The shelves of legitimate stores are bare, and the living standards of workers decline.

High prices in this country are the result of irresistible economic and governmental forces. Price control here would mean our acceptance of a totalitarian device which has never succeeded, and has been a depressive influence wherever tried in peacetime.

'PERFESSOR' WALLACE SNAKE OIL

(Milwaukee Journal)

Are you frightened? Are you confused? Are you discouraged? Are you sick and tired of all this talk about war with Russia? Do you see Stalin in your nightmares? Are you unhappy over all the expenditure of more and more effort and money on armaments?

Then listen to Senator Glen Taylor of Idaho and candidate for vice-president on the ticket or the new Progressive party.

When Henry Wallace is elected president, says the man from Idaho, "we can reach agreement with Russia and call off the whole armament program."

Reminds us of the cure-all snake oil a glib "perfeffor" used to sell at medicine shows.

Take My Word For It

Frank Colby

WHAT ABOUT SLANG? Almost every week some reader writes to me to this effect: "With your large national circulation, you could do much to preserve the purity of our language if you would launch a vigorous campaign to purge slang from the speech of America. Don't you think that it is your duty to do so?"

I always answer: No. In the first place, our language isn't in any way "pure"—nor has it ever been—and therein lies its strength, its beauty, its flexibility, and its exquisite descriptiveness. Only dead things are preserved.

In the second place, there is nothing inherently evil in slang, aside from the fact that it is tiresome when it is overworked. Slang is simply a fad, and, like all fads, it has its good and bad points.

Most fads rage a while and then suddenly disappear. Occasionally a fad lives on and becomes a permanent custom, like the wearing a wrist watches by men. Be-

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—If it were not so serious in terms of the well-being of the nation and the world, there would be an element of comedy in the politics behind the threatened railroad strike. The comic overtones of the tragedy center around the harassed, badgered, overworked president in the White House and the labor leaders who have brought down on him this latest burden.

Childs

This, it must be remembered, is a repeat performance. Two years ago the nation's railroads were about to come to a dead stop when President Truman intervened in the most dramatic and positive fashion.

As last-minute negotiations were about to break down, the president went before a joint session of Congress to ask the right to draft striking railway men into the Army and thereby compel them to run the trains. His request for such far-reaching power stirred a hornet's nest of protest and denunciation.

WHITNEY MADE THREAT

From the opposite poles of the Republican party—Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon and Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio—came an attack, with Morse using the strongest language. But the most violent attack came from the trainmen themselves. A. F. Whitney of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen in a burst of fury said he would spend millions of dollars to defeat Mr. Truman.

Whitney's partner in that quarrel of two years ago was Alvanley Johnston, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. While Whitney's union is not one of those involved in the present controversy, Johnston is in the thick of it.

After the railway unions had gone back to work, following Mr. Truman's impassioned plea to Congress in 1946, Whitney set out to make good on his threat. He became an active leader in the Progressive Citizens of America and lost no opportunity to denounce the "haberdashery salesman" who had forced his hand.

President Truman's popularity rose in the opinion polls following his action of two years ago. Many overseas veterans were still coming home and this was a factor in the grave concern throughout the nation over a shutdown of rail transportation.

Then some months ago Whitney made an abrupt about-face. The rail unions are essentially conservative, politically speaking, and the venerable leader of the trainmen could not back Wallace with all the Communist connections of the third party. So with appropriate fanfare supplied by the democratic national committee, Whitney did one of those political somersaults that occasion embarrassing questions from reporters and a slight leer from the public.

The president is not likely to go to Congress this time with a dramatic plea for force, even if the right to draft men into the Army were still on the statute books. There is the solid, commanding figure of Alvanley Johnston, one of the most powerful rulers in the hierarchy of the railroad brotherhoods, and not far in the background is Whitney with his promise of loyalty to the president.

There is, of course, a longer political perspective that the leaders who have precipitated the present crisis apparently ignore. Given the present outlook for November, they would seem to be shutting their eyes to an imminent danger.

IT'S ELECTION YEAR

Johnston's union is one of three holding out against a settlement accepted by 19 other rail unions. The latter were willing to take a 15 1/2 cent-an-hour increase. Thus, for a minority of the unions involved, the life of the nation may be brought to a stop.

Already Senator Joseph H. Ball of Minnesota has revived the idea of a law which would prohibit industry-wide bargaining. Ball led the drive a year ago to include such a ban in the Taft-Hartley act. It was defeated at that time.

The fact that this is an election year is almost certain to prevent any action by Congress. But the new Congress that comes in January of 1949 may well be more anti-labor than the one that is now in its last phase. This is what labor leaders accustomed to having their own way by a show of force seem to forget.

Seeing that 19 unions have already accepted the settlements, the public will have to conclude that inter-union rivalry must have something to do with the stand of the other three. And the public is at this point not inclined to be patient with the jealousies of union potentates.

fore World War I wrist watches for men were unthinkable.

Because slang comes and goes, it offers no threat to the language. On the contrary many useful words and expressions were once howled at by the purists as being vile, debased, obscene. Let me give you a good example by quoting what Dean Jonathan Swift (Gulliver's Travels) wrote about "that linguistic horror"—the word mob: "No word in our tongue is worthy of much severer reprobation. It belongs to a peculiarly odious kind of slang, not different in character from that which has given us 'gent' for gentleman, and 'pants' for pantaloon. Mob is one of the ridiculous words which I fear will be in time looked upon as part of the speech."

The doughty Dean's fears have been realized. Today mob, as well as pants, is a word of complete respectability. Who would have it otherwise?

Of course I am not recommending that we should all adopt a slangy way of speaking and writing. When and when not to use slang is a matter that can safely be left to your own good taste—the same good taste that will decide in time which slang will disappear and which will remain to enrich our great and living American language.

ANTIQUES—"If it's fifty years old it's worth collecting; if it's one hundred years old it's antique."

So goes the saying for the guidance of that growing number of people who "collect" old things, ranging from Stegle bottles and Sandwich glass to grandmother's red plush settee. The mania for antiques is a growing fad, and finds Americans divided into two camps: 1—Those who go all soft and pulpy over a Boston rocker; and 2—Those who wouldn't be caught dead in one of the things.

The first group is fortunately a minority, otherwise the manufacturers of today's goods would never find a market for anything. The second group is intent on comfort, the chrome-plated variety, sometimes referred to as "moderne", or adaptations of the traditional styles.

NEW AND OLD—Your true dyed-in-the-wool antique lover, 'em old, and the older the better. The faddists among the antique collectors seem to like anything, so long as it's old and a trifle odd. This last group never uses the old piece for the purpose for which it was originally intended.

Take a cobbler's bench, for instance. This piece was never used as furniture, but was a work bench on which the cobbler sat while making shoes. Nowadays the bench (or modern reproductions) are used to hold potted plants in the parlor, or replace the ubiquitous coffee or cocktail table.

Old flat irons become book ends, old treadle sewing machines become dressing tables, glass lamps hold wandering sprays of ivy, and handpainted cuspidors (grandpa called 'em spittoons) and could hit one at 20 paces) are tied with a swag of ribbon and decorate the dining table.

COLLECTORS—While the discriminating collector is intent on finding graceful well-made old pieces to use in his home, the faddist will buy almost anything called "old" or "antique." The first-named group would shudder at the thought of a rococo Victorian picture frame on his walls, while the second group would snap it up and consider he had made a "find." Antiques are always making "finds" as you will note if you talk with them very long. After taking a gander at some of their "finds," you become convinced somebody found them or at least discovered their soft spot.

There are two periods, however, that collectors avoid as if they represented esthetic cholera. They are the not-so-old "Mission period" characterized by quarter-sawn oak and stained glass lamps; and the recent "Moderne" that did strange things with steel, plastics and glass. Fortunately both periods are dead, although some designers haven't yet found that out.

THE BIG SALE—Antique collectors watch the for sale ads like hawks, and when they see household furnishings for sale they are on hand to look for "finds." The amateurs arrive at the time appointed for the sale. Those who know about such things locate the owner and have a look at the stuff before the sale opens, making their "finds" unhurriedly and without competition.

INTO THE PAST

20 Years Ago

Escanaba—Gideon Carlson is arriving this morning from Minneapolis, called by the death of his father, John Carlson, 1219 Second avenue north.

Escanaba—Robert Gessner was elected president of the oratorical association of the University of Michigan by an overwhelming student vote. Lawrence Hartwig, of this city and also a student in the University of Michigan, was elected treasurer of the association.

Manistique—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Orr have left for New York City to attend graduation exercises at the School for Training Christian Leaders, from which their daughter Clara is graduating following two years of study.

10 Years Ago

Munising—Mrs. J. A. Johnson has left for Chicago to attend graduation exercises in Augustana hospital school of nursing, from which her daughter, Lois, is being graduated.

Manistique—Mrs. Rudolph Sohlberg and Clarence Wickstrom have arrived from Chicago to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Larson, who observed their silver wedding anniversary May 10.

Escanaba—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gessner are spending the week in Ann Arbor attending the annual May Week festival. Mrs. Gessner will go to New York from there, to meet her mother, Mrs. Herman Weingberger.

ing their "finds" unhurriedly and without competition.

They know that at the sale itself they may grab something and pay a fancy price for it, only to discover later that it is valueless. There is nothing so frustrating to an antique hunter as to find that his "find" is not only no bargain, but is worthless. It is a black mark on his record of good judgment. After such an experience they have been known to sulk for days.

SECOND HAND—For obvious reasons the collector of antiques is likely to haunt the second hand stores, hoping that he will discover something "priceless" for 25 cents. He seldom does, because most second hand store proprietors can spot a collector as soon as he comes in. The antique hunter is a roving eye and a habit of turning things upside down to look on the bottom of the piece—whether it be a chair or a dish.

We tried that once. On the bottom of the dish it said "Made in Japan." The bottom of the chair had several impressive gobs of antique chewing gum.

THE BEGINNING—After the collector finds an "antique" and pays the first cost, his troubles have just started. Then he must refinish it, if it is furniture. A chair, for instance, or a table, seldom has its original finish in good condition. This means applying a couple gallons of varnish remover and spending two or three weeks scraping and cleaning off the old varnish.

Then comes the equally arduous task of smoothing and polishing, the application of stain and wax and more polishing. This sometimes goes on all winter and some people have been known to give up bridge and golf to spend their leisure hours scraping the leg of an old chair.

The discriminating collector, however, has something worthwhile to show for his work. Most older pieces of furniture were the work of skilled handicraftsmen. Their product was strong and sturdy as well as pleasing to the eye.

New York, (AP)—If you push enough doorbells, you'll sell enough brushes.

That is the simple sales formula on which Alfred C. Fuller, the original Fuller Brush man, has built a gigantic house-to-house business.

Fuller, now 63, started in the basement of his sister-in-law's house in 1905. He made brushes on a $15 second-hand machine in the afternoon and evening, peddled them the next morning.

He doesn't have to push doorbells himself anymore. He's so wealthy he doesn't even have to answer the door himself when a Fuller Brush man rings his doorbell to try to sell him a brush.

But this year some 7,000 Fuller Brush men across the nation will push approximately 43,750,000 doorbells to sell housewives nearly $30,000,000 worth of brushes.

Today the Fuller Brush man has become a familiar figure on the American doorstep. Red Skelton has just made a movie about him and the Saturday Evening Post featured him this week in one of its "Men At Work" series.

What's he like—this door-to-door salesman who has taken the place of the oldtime itinerant peddler and knocks more often than the postman?

The brush company recently polled some of its 7,000 dealers and came up with this picture:

The average Fuller Brush man is 40 years old, has a high school education, sets his own hours, earns $70 a week. He has been married 12 1/2 years, has a boy and a girl, owns a 5 1/2-room house and a low-priced car 7 1/2 years old with 52,500 miles on the speedometer.

He owns two radios, has been selling brushes for four years. His favorite hobbies are fishing, gardening and hunting, but he may collect seashells or pictures of steamships. This probably reflects a get-away-from-it-all feeling.

Some 35 per cent saw military service, 36 per cent belong to a fraternal lodge, one out of five has held a public office. Three have been mayors, three were ministers and one was a Royal Canadian mounted policeman who wore a hat of horse.

The Fuller Brush man works five days a week, pushes 25 doorbells a day, gives free to every prospect a vegetable scrubbing brush that costs him three cents. He has at least 2,000 families in his district, calls on them three or more times a year, sells to one out of every two housewives who come to the door.

The door is his big problem. He isn't allowed to put his foot in it, but once he gets past it he generally figures he's in—physically and in a sales sense, too. He then has 135 items to sell—from nail brushes to furniture polish.

In one out of 25 cases the Fuller Brush man isn't a man at all. He's a Fuller Brush lady. The percentage of women salesmen rose during the war.

The Fuller Brush man can't bristle when a door slams in his face, has to try, try again.

"One superintendent told me I could never get into his building while he was alive," a Fuller Brush man wrote cheerfully. "But he dropped dead, so now I can go into the building."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—Arab leaders have been meeting secretly to plan for the invasion of Palestine, and some of them are not too happy. They don't particularly trust King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan the central figure of the proposed invasion.

Pearson

King Farouk of Egypt, Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia and the Syrian government fear Abdullah will promote his own greater-Syrian ambitions by annexing part of Palestine for himself and then quit.

These fears were increased by a recent secret meeting at Amman between Abdullah and his nephew, Prince Abdul-Ilah, the regent of Iraq. Arab leaders have also got wind of a secret British understanding with Abdullah, giving Trans-Jordan a permanent corridor to the Mediterranean, in the vicinity of Gaza.

Final agreement on Arab invasion plans was reached at a secret meeting at Serka, Trans-Jordan, on April 23, attended by representatives of all the Arab states and the Arab higher committee, including the Multi. The main points of the agreement were:

The invasion army to be known as the "Arab League Palestine Army of Liberation." It will comprise the Arab legion, supplemented by contingents from the regular forces of Egypt, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, and Saudi Arabia. The contingent from each country will number between 2,000 and 3,500 men. In addition, Egypt and Iraq agreed to supply air force units.

Abdullah was appointed supreme commander, with a general from each Arab state and two Palestine Arab commanders under him. General Ismail Safurt, British-trained commander-in-chief of the volunteer "Liberation Army," and Fawzi Al Kawjki, present field commander of Arab forces are to be absorbed in the new headquarters at Jericho. Abdullah and the Mufti have already moved to Jericho. The Mufti's assignment is to watch Abdullah.

Arab states agreed at the secret meeting to finance the operation in proportion to their national resources, not in proportion to their contingents. Egypt is to bear the largest share; Iraq, which gets most of its money from England, is next.

D-day was set for May 16, on which day a Palestine Arab provisional government is to be proclaimed and recognized by the Arab governments.

One significant statement at the meeting was made by the Grand Mufti, who interpreted the state department's and United Nations' failure to become alarmed at previous Arab aggression as a guarantee they would not become excited over the invasion.

If the United States or the United Nations stiffened its attitude, however, it was agreed that Arab strategy might have to be changed.

Note—Since then, Arab leaders are reported worried over the Jews' ability to defend themselves. This may affect their ardor for invasion.

THE 49TH STATE

The Hawaiian statehood bill, which passed the House by a big majority, was secretly scuttled 7 to 5 by the Senate interior and insular affairs committee. Republican Sen. Guy Cordon of Oregon and Democratic Sen. Joseph O'Mahoney of Wyoming led the fight for making Hawaii the 49th state, but were overruled behind closed doors by Senator Hugh Butler of Nebraska, the committee chairman, Eugene Millikin of Colorado, and other Republicans.

However, here is the pay-off. After voting down the statehood bill, the same senators decided on another congressional junket to Hawaii—the 14th in the last five years—this time to investigate alleged Communism in the islands.

Butler and GOP colleagues apparently were more interested in getting a vacation on the sands of Waikiki at the expense of taxpayers than in granting Hawaii's rightful claim to statehood.

Note—One unfortunate aftermath of the Senate action is that Hawaii's able delegate to Congress, Joseph Farrington, who was chiefly responsible for piloting the statehood measure through the House, faces defeat in the next election because of his own political party knifed the bill in the Senate. Farrington is a Republican.

REAL-ESTATE FRIEND

Washington's real-estate spokesman, Sen. Harry Cain, who tried to scuttle public housing in the Senate the other day, blew up a verbal hailstorm on the Senate floor.

In the thick of it were two fellow Republicans, Charles Tobey of New Hampshire and Ralph Flanders of Vermont. "Last Friday," thundered Tobey, "he (Cain) stated that if we adopted his amendment, it would lessen the chances of the House adopting the general housing bill which the Senate passed unanimously."

Then, lifting his eyes to the rafters, Tobey appealed: "Are we going to commit hara-kiri? I ask you, sir!"

"Is it hara-kiri?" cut in Flanders dryly, "or Harry Cain?"

Note—Republican leaders in Washington state say that Cain has already committed political hara-kiri.

PICKETING A CONGRESSMAN

Congressman Aime Forand, Rhode Island Democrat, has finally taken the wind out of the ever-flowing speeches of amiable Congressman Bud Gearhart, California Republican.

Gearhart has been assailing his colleagues with tirades against the reciprocal trade treaties, so every time Gearhart preaches for more than 15 minutes, Forand picks him.

Gearhart is chairman of the House ways and means subcommittee which is considering whether to continue Cordell Hull's reciprocal trade agreements, and he claims that the reason for secret hearings is to discourage grandstand speeches. Yet he has been the worst offender.

EX-ROYALTY INVADES U. S.

Former Archdukes And Princes Plentiful

BY ROBERT C. RUARK

New York—It is getting so you can't spit out the window here without hitting an unhorsed prince, or at least a baggy-kneed archduke. The town is getting so fogged up with foreclosed nobility that even the cabdrivers are practicing the curtsy.

Up until this year, I hadn't had much truck with royalty, except at a distance, but you stumble over them now in the posh gin-joints and every elevator in the vicinity of Park avenue seems to include a passenger with a Hapsburg lip. It is a real nice homey touch.

Until the great invasion, I had two brief contacts with blue blood. A thick-necked cousin of mine, a Miami copper, once wed the divorced wife of the heir apparent to the Spanish throne. This made me a sort of illegitimate cousin, 18 times removed, from the Count of Covadonga, but he went and spoiled it all by smashing himself up in a car accident and succumbing to the old Bourbon—or was it Hapsburg—curse of haemophilia, or easy bleedin'.

One Becomes Tailor

The other connection with royalty is less tenuous. A former Russian cavalry officer named Kapa stitches me up a pair of pants from time to time. My frustrated urge for kingly company was considerably assuaged the other day when Kapa announced calmly that he was making clothes for Haile Selassie. The lion draws pictures of what he wants, sends the pictures to Kapa, and then Kapa ships the suits to Abyssinia. Yes, sir, kids. Me and the Emperor of Abyssinia wear the same kind of britches, except mine are bigger.

After the debacle last year involving Lady Iris Mountbatten, I had reached the conclusion that nobility eats abroad by floating bum checks and performing the taxi-dance on a lofty scale. When, of course, the lowercase dukes and counts are not cadging free champagne off the rich commoners who still get a bang out of paying court to disenfranchised crest-wearers.

We seem, finally, to have found the perfect occupation for our visitors from afar. It is the Regent Box Club, a procurement organization for the signatures of titled floaters on advertising endorsements. It was founded by the Baron George Wrangell, a Russian who would not be received well in Russia today, and is loaded with princesses, marquises, countesses and such-like.

Used for Testimonials

The idea is that any time a hurry call comes from one of the ad agencies for a paid plug for the gland-building powers of Foley's fatuous face cream, they give the Baron a tinkle. The Baron asks them whether they want a fat Italian Contessa or a bandy-legged Polish whatever. They specify something without nose-warts and soon you got the testimonial: "I always use Foley's fatuous face cream, because it has vitamin Z—the vitamin that takes the resilience out of checks." Signed—Princess Gussie of Hammacher—Schlemmer.

For this they get dough, and the dough—after expenses, and ah, them lovely expenses—is supposed to go to European relief, with a 10 per cent cut to American charity. But after expenses. Always after expenses. Not even H. V. Kaltenborn would predict that we can knock off the European plan, now, as no longer necessary.

First state in which rural mail delivery service was provided was West Virginia.

DUTCH OVEN GAS RANGE

It's Automatic . . .

Besides the new kitchen - freedom and extra leisure which automatic oven control brings . . . you'll love the mouth-melting, delicious Dutch Oven style of cooking. Put a whole meal in the extra-large oven, set the control, and forget it till serving time. Meanwhile, the gas turns off automatically at pre-set time, and cooking continues on stored-up, radiated heat. In addition to the new taste thrill you'll experience with delicious Dutch Oven cooking, there's great economy, too. The gas is actually turned off—automatically—after a short period, and cooking continues on retained heat . . . held in by unusually heavy insulation. Only the Maytag Dutch Oven Gas Range turns off the gas and keeps right on cooking.

Completely Safe . . .

Utterly new in design, action and location, the Visual-Height Lever-Action Controls are safely beyond the reach of toddlers' fingers—yet easy for you to see and to set without stopping, stooping or squinting. The easy-action levers slide up and down at a touch of your fingertips. Another safety feature is the Divided Top. It provides an "at the range" work surface where you can turn cooking utensil handles to the center, so they stay cool and out of children's reach.

Cleans in a Jiffy . . .

Easy to clean, easy to keep clean . . . the top and burner bowls are one solid piece * with all rounded corners. The top is triple-coated with stain resisting, gleaming white porcelain enamel. The shiny Perma-Finish Grids stay like new for years. The handy grids and compact Spiral-Heat burners all lift out easily for quick cleaning of burner bowls and range top.

Cooks Like a Dream! . . .

As a conventional range, the Maytag is the very last word in modern efficiency, cooking speed, convenience and gas economy. The new Spiral-Flame burners focus the heat where it's most effective — cook faster — save gas. Oven temperatures are controlled automatically by the accurate thermostat. The Dutch Cooker Well—built into the top—cooks an entire meal on retained heat with only a tiny "warming flame" burning two-thirds of the time. Cooking is cooler, easier and more economical in this thoroughly-insulated unit. The Sizzle-Serve broiler is beautiful as well as efficient. It's a polished, chrome-finished serving tray, as well as a Sizzle-Serve broiler. Attractive wooden handles fit neatly onto the shiny broiler pan, enabling you to carry it right to the dining table. You serve your sizzling steak right from the tray.

Now! See it cook ON with gas OFF . . . automatically!

U. P. Guard Unit Seeks To Become First Full Strength Unit In State

Men 17 to 35 years of age with or without previous military service and men over 35 with previous service are eligible to join the Upper Michigan National Guard, Lt. Col. William F. Milford, jr., of Calumet, commander of the U. P. unit, announces.

In line with the state recruiting drive, Upper Michigan Guard units are endeavoring to fill their rosters to full authorized strength. It is hoped the 107th Engineer battalion of the U. P. will be the first battalion in the state to reach full strength.

Companies at Escanaba, Calumet and Sault Ste. Marie are authorized to enlist 129 men each. Headquarters and service company at Marquette is authorized a membership of 98 men. Escanaba had vacancies for 29 men. It is expected that many of these will be filled at drill tonight.

Prospective members of the Guard are informed that in order to be exempt from selective service or universal military training, they must enlist before such legislation becomes effective. It is expected that the draft bill will become law before June 1.

"The National Guard affords every young man the opportunity to serve his country and still remain a civilian," Colonel Milford said. "Every man who can pass the physical examination can serve at home and among his friends and school or business associates."

"These are ideal conditions for the civilian soldier. The work—only two hours of drill each week—does not in any way interfere with a man's civilian activities."

World War II veterans with less than one year's service would likely be drafted under proposed selective service legislation, he emphasized.

They may join in the grade they held at time of discharge if such a vacancy occurs.

Men interested in joining the Delta county unit may report at drill tonight or telephone 533-R, the state fairgrounds armory, between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Gladiatorial contests in ancient Rome had women, as well as men, as contestants.

Thin Scalps Will Grow Bald Sooner

It may be unjust to tell a middle-aged man who still has a bushy head of hair that he's a fathead; but Dr. M. Wharton Young of Howard University did say that thin scalps tend to grow bald sooner than thick ones, and that one aid to having a deep bed for your hair roots to grow in is to have a layer of fat under the skin. Main thing in keeping your hair is a rich supply of blood vessels, and these become scanty in thin scalps.

African Voodoo
Dramatic Basis
Of Radio Play

African voodoo and a series of dolls figure prominently in the weird tale, written by Richard Morenus, which Civic Theatre of Escanaba will dramatize over WBCB Thursday at 9:30 p. m.

Helen Masterson, long-active in theatre work and who portrayed the mother in Civic Theatre's recent play, "Three Corners Moon," is directing the cast of six. Bob Russell is handling sound effects and Mary Roberts musical supervision.

Pat Farrell, a new member of Civic Theatre, will play the role of Martha Wayne. Alfred Kristofferson, Bark River school teacher, will be heard in the role of John Lockwood. Marie Gray plays Bella Lockwood and Mary Masterson the role of Emily Banning. Ralph Banning will be interpreted by Gardner Eversole. Bob Russell will be heard as doctor Ballard.

The story of the "Dolls" revolves about the use of African voodoo through life-like doll images of actual people, by Bella Lockwood, a veteran world traveler. The Bannings become involved in her schemes. Martha Wayne narrates the story and her part in it.

Ordinance No. 181

An ordinance regulating the erection, construction, enlargement, alteration, repair, moving, removal, conversion, demolition, occupancy, equipment, use, height, area, and maintenance of buildings or structures in the City of Escanaba; providing for the issuance of permits and collection of fees therefor; declaring and establishing fire districts; providing penalties for violation thereof; and repealing all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict therewith.

"The City of Escanaba Ordinance."

CHAPTER I—TITLE AND SCOPE

Sec. 101. This ordinance shall be known as the "Building Code," and may be cited as such, and will be referred to herein as "this Code."

Sec. 102. The purpose of this Code is to provide minimum standards to safeguard life or limb, health, property, and public welfare by regulating and controlling the design, construction, quality of materials, use and occupancy, location and maintenance of all buildings and structures within the city and certain equipment specifically regulated herein.

The provisions of this Code shall supplement any and all laws of the State relating to buildings.

Sec. 103. New buildings and structures hereafter erected in the city, and buildings and structures moved into or within the city shall conform to the requirements of this Code.

Sec. 104. Additions, alterations, repairs and changes of use or occupancy in all buildings and structures shall conform to the provisions for new buildings and structures.

Where, in any specific case, different sections of this Code, or different materials, methods of construction or other requirements, the most restrictive shall govern.

"All materials and assemblies of material: appliances and installation of appliances; arrangements of partitions and segregation of occupancies; all exits, aisles, stairs, doors and appurtenances thereto in buildings or structures shall be so arranged, assembled and of such size and so protected as to hold to a minimum all exit, fire and health hazards."

"The quality of all materials, method of connecting or assembling such materials, stresses allowed, and the design and construction of all buildings or structures shall be in accordance with nationally recognized standards of quality and with generally recognized and well established methods of structural design and construction."

"Compliance with all the provisions of the Uniform Building Code, 1946 Edition, and Uniform Building Code for Small Jurisdictions, 1946 Edition, of the Pacific Coast Building Officials' Conference, three copies of which are on file with the City Clerk as a public record, shall be and is hereby declared to be (prima facie) evidence of the reduction of fire and other hazards, acceptable quality of material and generally recognized and well established methods of structural design and construction."

Sec. 105. (a) General. Buildings or structures to which additions, alterations, or repairs are made shall comply with all the requirements for new buildings or structures except as specifically provided in this Code.

(b) Additions, Alterations and Repairs: More Than 50 Per Cent. When additions, alterations, or repairs within any 12-month period exceed 50 per cent of the value of an existing building or structure, such building or structure shall conform to the requirements for new buildings or structures.

(c) Additions, Alterations and Repairs: 25 to 50 Per Cent. Additions, alterations, and repairs exceeding 25 per cent but not exceeding 50 per cent of the value of an existing building or structure and complying with the requirements for new buildings or structures may be made to such building or structure within any 12-month period without making the entire building or structure comply with the requirements of this Code for a new building of like area, height, and occupancy. Such building or structure, including new additions, shall not exceed the area and height specified in this Code.

(d) Additions, Alterations and Repairs: 25 Per Cent or Less. Structural additions, alterations, and repairs to any portion of an existing building or structure, within any 12-month period, not exceeding 25 per cent of the value of the building or structure shall comply with all of the requirements for new buildings or structures, except that minor structural additions, alterations, or repairs, when approved by the Building Official, may be made using the same material of which the building or structure is constructed.

(e) Repairs: Roof Covering. Not more than 25 per cent of the roof covering of any building or structure shall be replaced in any 12-month period unless the new roof covering is made to conform to the requirements of this Code for new buildings or structures.

All devices or safeguards which are required by this Code in a building or structure which are altered, or repaired, shall be maintained in good working order. The owner or his designated agent shall be responsible for the maintenance of buildings and structures.

Sec. 106. The provisions of this Code are not intended to prevent the use of any material or method of construction not specifically prescribed in this Code, provided any such alternate has been approved.

The Building Official may approve any alternate provided he finds that the proposed design is satisfactory and complies with the provisions of this Code, and that the alternate method of work offered is, for the purpose intended, at least the equivalent of that prescribed in this Code in quality, strength, effectiveness, fire resistance, durability and safety.

The Building Official shall require that sufficient evidence or proof be submitted to substantiate any claims that may be made regarding its use.

Sec. 107. Whenever there is evidence that any material or any construction does not conform to the requirements of this Code, the Building Official may require the owner or his agent to be made at the expense of the owner or his agent by an approved agency.

Sec. 202. The Building Official is hereby authorized and directed to enforce all the provisions of this Code. For such purpose he shall have the aid of the police officer.

The determination of value or valuation under any of the provisions of this Code shall be made by the Building Official.

Such notice shall not be removed without permission of the Building Official and no person shall enter the building except for the purpose of making the required repairs or of demolishing same.

(d) Right to Demolish. In case the owner shall fail, neglect, or refuse to comply with the notice to repair, rehabilitate, or to demolish and remove said building or structure or portion thereof, the City Council may order the Building Official to proceed with the work specified in such notice. A statement of the cost of such work shall be transmitted to the City Council, who shall cause the same to be paid and levied as a special assessment against the property.

Sec. 205. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to erect, construct, alter, repair, move, improve, remove, convert or demolish, cause use, occupy or maintain any building or structure in the city, or cause the same to be done, contrary to or in violation of any of the provisions of this Code.

CHAPTER III—PERMITS AND INSPECTIONS

Sec. 301. (a) Permits Required. No person, firm, or corporation shall erect, construct, alter, repair, move, improve, remove, convert or demolish any building or structure in the city or cause the same to be done without first obtaining a separate building permit for each building or structure from the Building Official.

(b) Application. To obtain a permit the applicant shall first file an application with the Building Official, which shall be accompanied by a plan or plans, and a fee therefor, as provided in this Code. Every such application shall:

1. Describe the land on which the proposed work is to be done, by lot, block, tract, and house and street address, or similar description that will readily identify and definitely locate the proposed building or work.

2. Be accompanied by plans and specifications as required in this Code.

3. State the valuation of the proposed work.

4. Give such other information as reasonably may be required by the Building Official.

(c) Plans and Specifications. Each application for a permit shall be accompanied by two sets of plans and specifications.

(d) Information on Plans and Specifications. Plans and specifications need not be submitted for small and unimportant work when authorized by the Building Official.

(e) Information on Plans and Specifications. Plans and specifications shall be submitted for all work of substantial nature, and shall be of sufficient clarity to indicate the nature and extent of the work proposed.

(f) Other Inspections. In addition to the inspections specified in this Code and all relevant laws, ordinances, rules and regulations, the first sheet of each set of plans shall give the house and street address of the work and the name and address of the owner and person who prepared them. Plans shall include a plot plan showing the location of the proposed building and of every existing building on the property. In lieu of detailed specifications, the Building Official may approve references on the following types of work:

1. CONCRETE: On concrete work with the exception of an "f" in excess of 2,000 pounds.

2. MASONRY: On masonry when the design is based on unit stresses in excess of 50 per cent of those allowed in normal use.

3. WELDING: On all structural welding.

4. REINFORCED GYPSUM: A special inspector shall be present when cast-in-place reinforced gypsum is being mixed or deposited.

5. SPECIAL WORK: On special construction or work involving unusual hazards.

(g) General. In addition to the inspections to be made as specified in Section 304, the owner or his agent shall employ a special inspector during construction on the following types of work:

1. CONCRETE: On concrete work with the exception of an "f" in excess of 2,000 pounds.

2. MASONRY: On masonry when the design is based on unit stresses in excess of 50 per cent of those allowed in normal use.

3. WELDING: On all structural welding.

4. REINFORCED GYPSUM: A special inspector shall be present when cast-in-place reinforced gypsum is being mixed or deposited.

5. SPECIAL WORK: On special construction or work involving unusual hazards.

(h) Refutation of Plans. One set of approved plans, specifications and computations shall be retained by the Building Official for a period of not less than 90 days from date of completion of the work covered therein, and one set of approved plans and specifications shall be returned to the applicant, which set shall be kept on such building or work at all times during which the work authorized thereby is in progress.

(i) Validity. The issuance or granting of a permit or approval of plans and specifications shall not be construed as a permit, or approval, of any violation of any of the provisions of this Code. No permit shall be valid, except in so far as the work or use which it authorizes is lawful.

The issuance of a permit based upon plans and specifications shall not preclude the Building Official from taking action after requiring the correction of errors in said plans and specifications or from preventing building operations being carried on in violation of this Code or of any other ordinance of the city.

(j) Expiration. Every permit issued by the Building Official under the provisions of this Code shall expire, if the building or work authorized by such permit is not commenced within 60 days from the date of such permit, or if the building or work authorized by such permit is suspended or abandoned at any time after the work is commenced for a period of 60 days. Before such work can be recommenced a new permit shall be obtained and the fee therefor shall be one-half the amount required for a new permit for such work, provided no changes have been made or will be made in the original plans and specifications for such work; and provided, further, that the work or abandonment has not exceeded one year.

(b) Plan-checking Fees. Before plans and specifications are accepted for a permit, a plan-checking fee shall be paid to the Building Official. The plan-checking fee shall be one-half the building permit fee.

Fisheries Biologist To Study Sea Lamprey Here

The Institute for Fisheries Research with headquarters at Ann Arbor has assigned Clarence Taube, biologist, to the state fish hatchery at Thompson, it was announced today. Taube will work out of Thompson in Marquette and Dickinson and all counties east in the Upper Peninsula.

Continued investigation of the sea lamprey problem and investigation of trout lakes are the two main projects with which Taube will be concerned this year.

The work with sea lampreys will chiefly consist of obtaining an estimate of the size of the major spawning run of the lampreys to provide a basis for possibly establishing measures against this fish parasite. Special effort also will be made to determine the relative abundance of lampreys in Lake Superior.

Stanley Shust, regional supervisor of the fish division for the conservation department at Marquette, said Taube's work on trout lakes will involve further search of waters suited for trout. There also will be a study of growth and condition of trout in some lakes which have been stocked within recent years.

In addition, a considerable number of miscellaneous investigations have been scheduled for lakes and streams in the Thompson district.

Taube completed graduate work at Michigan State College in 1942. He was assigned from the Institute of Fisheries Research branch of the conservation department's fish division.

FIRE DESTROYS
NEW TREES

About 8 Acres North
Of Cooks Burnt Over

A fishing party, bent on having fish for dinner regardless of whether or not any were caught, is blamed for a forest fire that burned about eight acres of national forest in the Carr Creek area north of Cooks Monday afternoon.

Telltale remains of a repast the chief item of which was lake trout, were found along the banks of Carr Creek where the fire started. A brisk wind, to all appearances scattered the brands of the camp fire and spread to a patch of tall grass. The fire first swept through a cutover area and then into a plantation area. Several acres of young trees, that had been making good progress, were destroyed before the fire fighters got the situation under control.

The identity of the careless fishermen has not as yet been ascertained.

Brownie And Girl
Scouts Receive
Badges And Wings

Six Lakeside Brownie Scouts received their "wings," and members of the Lakeside Intermediate Scouts were presented with their badges at a Fly-up ceremony held Monday afternoon at Lakeside school. Brownies who took part in the Fly-up were Suzanne Heinz, Sharon McNally, Lorna Vance, Linda Ekdall, Arlene Benson, and Betty McNamara. This group will join the Lakeside Intermediate scout troop with the opening of scout activities in the fall. Brownie leaders who presented the wings to the girls were Mrs. C. F. Anderson, and Mrs. Thor Reque.

Second class badges were presented to all members of the Intermediate troop, and the cooking badge was also earned by the majority of the group. Those receiving the badges were Marjorie Turpin, Laura Grace Sitkoski, Marilee Turpin, Mary Ella Giovannini, Mary Rita Anderson, Mary Ann Nastoff, Connie Vail, Mavis Talbot, Lois Jensen, Jill Harbin, Jean Schurmer, Helen and Loretta Charron, and Roberta LaFollette. Leaders of this troop are Mrs. Anthony Nastoff, and Mrs. Renold Anderson.

Following the ceremonies the girls enjoyed a get-acquainted game and were served ice cream and cookies. The cookies were the gift of several mothers of the Brownies, and ice cream sandwiches were provided by the Intermediate troop.

Girl Scout Troops Receive Benefits From Cookie Sales
Checks totaling over one hundred dollars have just been mailed to the various Girl Scout troops, according to Mrs. Earl H. LeBrasseur, commissioner.

In a report recently submitted to the local council by the Finance chairman Mrs. W. J. Sheahan, 364 boxes of cookies were sold. Each troop that participated received for its treasury the profit from the cookies the respective troop sold. This money is to be used for the promotion of camp or some other worthy scout cause.

The Lakeside Intermediate troop with Mrs. Reynold Anderson and Mrs. Tony Nastoff as leaders sold the greatest number of boxes, 171 and this troop was closely followed by the Lincoln Intermediates under the supervision of Mrs. Max Osterhout and Mrs. C. E. Moore with 167 boxes and the Central Intermediates under Leader Mrs. W. G. Wilson with 158 boxes was third.

Because there was no Community Chest drive this year, the Girl Scouts took this means of replenishing the treasures of the various scout troops.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Mary Huff, who passed away six years ago, May 12, 1942:

What would we give her hand to clasp,
Her patient face, to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,

As in the days that used to be,
But some sweet day we'll meet again,
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each others hand once more.

In heaven, that happy life,
Sadly missed by her daughters and sons, father, brothers and sisters.

CONCRETE MEANS PERMANANCE

You want concrete for permanence but you CAN'T EXPECT the best results unless your concrete is made from CLEAN WASHED stone and sand CAREFULLY MEASURED BEFORE placing in the mixer, and then only if the correct amount of water is used in relation to the type and amount of cement and other ingredients.

The cement costs far more than the total cost of all the other ingredients, so why waste it by using a pit run of gravel and sand which is NOT washed, free from clay, and other foreign matter or graded into various sizes so they can be placed in the mixer in the proper proportions for good concrete?

All our materials are washed and graded. We carefully weigh the sand and stone separately on scales which are built into our mixer. The water is measured automatically and the cement is added according to the types of concrete best suited for your job. The correct type of mix for each kind of job is prepared for us by concrete engineers of the Universal Laboratories in Minneapolis.

We deliver this superior type of concrete to your premises in modern trucks eliminating all the trouble and mess usually associated with the old fashioned method of mixing on the job.

The big surprise comes when you find that this modern clean method of pouring superior concrete is cheaper. Call us for the best in Ready Mixed Concrete.

Cleveland Must Learn To Beat Yankees

Wertz Triples Enable Detroit To Beat Nats

Washington, May 12 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers and specially Vic Wertz found night baseball to their liking last night as they beat the Washington Senators, 4 to 1.

The game snapped a three-game losing streak for the Bengals. They called on Hal Newhouse to keep them in the win column in the second game under arc lights tonight.

Virgil Trucks posted his third consecutive victory of the season last night, but the veteran fireballer needed some stout sticking by Vic Wertz. Stubby Overmire also turned in a nice bit of relief work when Trucks ran into heavy weather in the last of the ninth.

The Tigers wasted little time in grabbing the lead as they pushed over two runs in the top of the first. With two away, Pat Mullin walked and Hoot Evers doubled. Wertz then tripled to right center.

Detroit held its 2-0 advantage going into the sixth inning. Then Wertz came up again with two aboard and two out. His second triple off losing pitcher Mickey Haefner gave the Tigers their four-run margin.

The 14,461 fans had little to cheer about as Trucks went into the last of the ninth with a 4-0 lead.

With one away, Evans batted for relief pitcher Thompson and walked. Yost doubled to left, scoring Evans. Kozar walked, bringing the potential tying run up to the plate.

Overmire took over for Trucks. Outfielder Gil Coan caught hold of one of Overmire's fast ones and lashed it over the right field wall—foul by two feet. Coan then lined to Mullins. Both runners moved up on a wild pitch. Then Vernon grounded out and the Tigers had the ball game.

Newhouse, who has dropped four straight games since he won the Tigers' opener at Chicago, will be opposed by Sid Hudson tonight. The Washington right-hander has a record of one win and two losses.

Golfers Give Mother Goose a Wide Berth

Chicago, May 12 (AP)—Golfers at the suburban Riverside Golf club are spinning Mother Goose tales at the 19th hole—and they're true ones. A few weeks ago a mama and papa goose settled in the rough near the fairway of No. 12 hole, close to an inviting pond, or water hole. Recently golfers found five eggs in their nest.

The mother goose has been setting on the eggs almost continuously while her hubby swims around in the pond. Most golfers are passing the mother goose and her eggs at a safe distance and as a result their scores are higher.

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Odds and Ends: Elaborate plans had been laid to transport major league baseball teams by air if the railway strike had materialized. . . . Even the umpires were going up in the air—and without Lippy Derocher's help. . . . Many of the clubs had one or more players who absolutely refused to fly, and they were to be transported by bus or private auto. . . . The Chicago Cubs said they'd get around somehow. . . . Any other way than the way they're going would be an improvement.

Quote from Harvey Meyer of Meyers alleys in Menominee, site of the 1949 U. P. bowling tournament: "We are happy to get the U. P. tournament and we plan to go all out to make it the finest tournament in history." . . . Menominee had the U. P. tourney in 1937 and also in 1938. . . . We commented about the close vote (Menominee won the 1949 meet by 22 votes over Iron Mountain, 1,001 to 979). . . . Carl Sawyer, veteran Escanaba bowler, said: "That's nothing. We had a two-vote margin once."

Keeping the U. P. pin meet in the central U. P. seems a greedy proposition, but it gives teams in the eastern and western extremities an even break. . . . Can't imagine Soo bowlers, for instance, traveling some 400 miles to Ironwood, or vice versa. . . . But it should go east or west once every few years to stimulate the sport in those spots.

Manistique's baseball field is being rebuilt. . . . Haven't heard from Harry Buchman about the progress of the Rapid River baseball field but understand that no stone is being left unturned to give that active community its World War II memorial athletic field. . . . When Menominee and Marinette track teams met at Walton Blech field last night, it was the first night track meet in U. P. history.

Michigan Tech won a five-way track meet in Ironwood Saturday, scoring 57 3/4 to 45 3/4 for Gogebic J. C., 33 for Northern Michigan College of Education, 11 for Duluth J. C. and four for Northland. . . . Waino Salo, stocky young hurdler from Eben, who was the class of the U. P. Class D hurdlers here last year, set a 120-yard high hurdle meet record of 16.4, four tenths of a second better than the previous mark. . . . Salo is a student at Northern now.

New York Has Kept 'Em Away From Pennant

By Joe Reichler
Associated Press Sport Writer
If the Cleveland Indians are to win their first pennant in 28 years, they had best learn to beat the New York Yankees.

One of the principal reasons the Indians have been pennantless since 1920 has been their inability to win their share of games from the Bronx Bombers. Only four times in the last 27 seasons have the Indians won a majority of their games with the Yanks.

During the 27-year span, Cleveland finished in the runner-up spot three times. Always it was the Yankees who kept them from winning the flag.

This habit of long standing continued to haunt the Indians yesterday. Facing the Yankees for the first time this season, the Tribe absorbed a 4-1 licking which not only ended a five-game winning streak but knocked the team out of first place in the American league race.

The Philadelphia Athletics nipped the St. Louis Browns, 3-2, in 11 innings to push past Cleveland into the top spot. The Yankees remained in third place in the tight race, a game away from the top.

In other American league games the Boston Red Sox snapped a five-game losing streak by shelling the tail-end Chicago White Sox, 8-0, and Detroit whipped the Senators in a night game at Washington, 4-1.

Only one National league game was played. The Philadelphia Phillies came from behind to defeat the Reds in Cincinnati, 4-3, and make a sweep of the three-game series. New York at Chicago and Boston at St. Louis were rained out. Brooklyn and Pittsburgh were not scheduled.

Allie Reynolds, former Cleveland right-hander, pitched the Yankees to victory over the Indians, allowing his former mates only nine hits as he registered his fifth straight triumph. The Indians' lone run resulted from Kenny Keltner's 10th home run in the fourth inning.

A night game Philadelphia crowd of 22,565 saw the Athletics win their ninth straight. The winning run came in the bottom half of the 11th when St. Louis pitcher Fred Sanford walked Pete Suder with the bases loaded and two out. Sam Chapman had sent the game into overtime when he exploded a ninth inning home run with two out and two strikes on him.

Ted Schroeder Tells Kramer's Tennis Secret

By Hugh Mullerton, Jr.

New York, May 12 (AP)—You can give Ted Schroeder, still an amateur tennis player, an assist on Jack Kramer's amazing series of professional victories over Bobby Riggs. . . . "Schroeder and I worked it out together," Kramer explains. "We decided there's no use trying to outsteady a fellow with perfect ground strokes like Riggs or Frank Parker. The way to beat him is to have no rallies—just serve and go to the net."

Apparently it has worked. Riggs now says big Jake has the "most deceptive" service, though not the hardest, he ever has seen. . . . And they both agree that Kramer's slambang tactics put the pressure on Bobby so that Riggs' own serves and passing shots lost steam and accuracy while Jake was gaining confidence all the time.

Turnabout
While Kramer is confident of his ability to take Riggs at Tennis, he's not so sure about golf. They're both practicing in what spare time they have for the coming celebrities tournament. . . . "Ordinarily I shoot about 85 but I think under pressure I'll get down to 80," says Kramer. . . . "But you should see Bobby drive. After seeing how far he can hit them, I can understand how a little guy like Ben Hogan does it."

PHONE CHANGE TO TAKE TIME

Extended - Area Service
Planned Here

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company today announced it will take many months to provide the necessary facilities before extended-area service can go into general effect.

George A. Marcouiller, manager for the company, pointed out that the Michigan Public Service Commission, in approving extended-area service recently, did so to permit the company to plan for the service while expanding its facilities to meet growth. Many additional circuits must be provided between neighboring communities, he said, to take care of the heavy increase in traffic expected to develop as a result of the new type of service.

Under the order, the company is authorized to provide an extended-area service in 196 of its 241 out-station exchanges. Sixteen exchanges were not included in the company's original application, 29 others were excluded by joint agreement of the company and the Commission, and a number of exchanges were regrouped in the various extended-service areas.

"The new type of service will eliminate toll charges of the 10 and 15 cent type between affected exchanges," Marcouiller said. "Users will be entitled to unlimited calls to and from nearby Michigan Bell exchanges with the same privilege, a somewhat higher flat rate will apply at some points, depending on the value of the service as measured by the number of telephones in the extended-service area. Many users will pay no more for the privilege than under the present system."

"Extended-area service, in effect, offers the user, at a single price, a packaged service that permits him to use his telephone to the maximum advantage. He will be able to communicate with telephone neighbors in nearby communities—and they with him—without paying a toll. Further, he will be able to call just as often and talk just as long as he pleases. In other words, for the price of local exchange service, the user's calling opportunities will be extended beyond artificial boundaries and over a wide, inter-community area."

When the plan is made effective in this area, telephone users here, according to Marcouiller, will be able to place calls to and receive calls from Gladstone, Bark River, and Rapid River without paying toll charges.

The order also authorized the creation of the Grand Rapids and Pontiac district exchanges similar to the Detroit metropolitan system.

Rival Pickets Mix Over New Movie, 'The Iron Curtain'

New York, May 12 (AP)—Thousands pouring out of theaters near Times Square last night were swept into a milling throng of rival pickets, clashing over the movie, "The Iron Curtain."

Fist fights broke out, and the police and canteens rose above the roar of traffic.

Almost 200 police—some riding horses on the sidewalks—struggled with the pickets a half-hour before clearing the area. Five persons were arrested, one accused of punching a policeman.

Traffic halted in some places and slowed to a snail pace in others as pickets who identified themselves as members of the New York Committee Against War Propaganda marched in front of the Roxy theater, 50th street and 7th avenue. They carried placards protesting the movie.

Members of the Catholic war veterans had waited at the scene four hours for the rival pickets to show up.

Chicago, May 12 (AP)—The weather continued to blow hot and cool over the country today. There was rain in several sections.

It was warm and humid in the south and eastern sections of the country. Unseasonably cool air covered an area from New England across the Great Lakes, the Middle Mississippi Valley to the Southern Plains.

In the cool belt, the mercury dipped below freezing at Land O'Lakes, Wis., early today. Readings generally were 35-40 in the northern sections of the Great Lakes area.

Rain fell in parts of Georgia, South Carolina, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and the Lower Lakes region to New England today.

Party Harmony Sought In Lansing

through an unfriendly legislature purely for the sake of party harmony, or whether Sigler would agree to the deal after the citizens' committee had started its campaign for signatures appeared problematical.

The legislature will return May 20 for its traditional two-day session (final session, usually a mere formality attended by a handful). However, this year pressure is being applied to bring back a majority of both House and Senate to rescue a $16,000,000 institutional construction appropriation left hanging at the previous adjournment.

In the hope of compromising the House-Senate deadlock which left that bill dangling, the ways and means and finance committees of the two chambers planned a peace conference this afternoon (2 p. m.).

In addition to $11,000,000 for various institutional building projects, agreeable to both chambers, the first centers around $1,500,000 for a new maternity hospital at the University of Michigan, $1,500,000 to complete a physics building at Michigan State college, $2,000,000 to start the first unit of Northville state hospital, and $5,000,000 for county roads.

Girl Gets 20 Years For Shooting Father Who Killed Mother

Eminence, Mo., May 12 (AP)—Seventeen-year-old Betty Jane Kroeger was sentenced last night to 20 years in the state penitentiary for the fatal shooting of her father.

The girl told the jury, which returned the guilty verdict, that she watched her father fatally shoot her mother, then later shot her father in self defense. "I told him I was going to tell police," she testified. "He got white around the eyes and said if I wanted to see the light of another day I'd better not. I told him I didn't care what happened after mom died. I pulled a gun from my purse. He started toward me. There was nothing to throw. I fired."

A written statement signed by the girl following her arrest March 8 was admitted as evidence by Circuit Judge Gordon Dorris. It said she killed both her parents. Judge Dorris dismissed a charge of murder in the death of her mother at the prosecution's request.

Vandenberg Wins GOP Nomination In NMCE Convention

Marquette, Mich., May 12 (AP)—Overriding the "Dark Horse" candidacy of Senator Wayne L. Morse, of Oregon, Michigan supporters of Senator Arthur L. Vandenberg last night were victorious in obtaining his "nomination" for the presidency by the mock Republican convention conducted yesterday in the Northern Michigan College of Education.

Vandenberg trailed Harold E. Stassen, Morse and Thomas E. Dewey on two ballots before he surged into a 377-309 lead over Stassen on the third. While the votes were being tallied, Chairman William Niemi of the Arizona delegation, one of five students who had mapped Morse's campaign, announced Arizona's "grave decision" to give its 12 votes to Vandenberg and urged Morse supporters to follow his example.

It started a stampede to get aboard the Vandenberg bandwagon, climaxed by New York's 96-vote delegation, putting the Michigan senator "over the top." There was considerable re-switching on a re-vote for the third ballot, demanded after Texas had urged Vandenberg's nomination be made unanimous, but the final tally gave Vandenberg 684 and Stassen 406.

C. William O'Neill, youthful speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives, who was Republican keynote for the convention, predicted a GOP victory in November, but warned against overconfidence. He urged participation in politics by the students, because "you have a stake in American and the way America is governed will affect you."

Noel Fox, Muskegon, Mich., attorney who was the Democratic party's keynote, earlier in the day placed complete blame for the Russians' grab of Czechoslovakia on the Republican Congress' five months' delay in acting on the Marshall Plan for economic aid to Europe.

Stenographer With 4 Husbands Admits She Was Impulsive

Los Angeles, May 12 (AP)—Barbara Joyce Dardis Hendricks Decker Vaughn, 21-year-old stenographer, explained today that she has four husbands—three over par—because she is impulsive.

"I married them all in four years, just on the spur of the moment, from time to time," police quoted her. "I never divorced any of them, either."

She is being held in county jail on a bigamy charge.

Her fourth husband is Gerald C. Vaughn, 42-year-old machinist. Police said she was married to Ernest Dardis, in El Monte, Calif., in March, 1944; to Leo M. Hendricks in Las Vegas, Nev., in September, 1946, and to Dean Decker in San Bernardino, Calif., in June 1947.

Netherlands Queen To Abdicate, Give Throne to Juliana

Amsterdam, The Netherlands, May 12 (AP)—Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands will abdicate toward the end of September in behalf of her daughter, Princess Juliana, the queen announced in a radio broadcast tonight.

The queen, 68, has been in poor health for months.

Wilhelmina took a seven-week vacation from her royal office last fall and special legislation was drafted for Juliana to act as regent. Wilhelmina resumed her royal duties Dec. 1.

A government announcement Saturday said she planned to wield her powers for a second time next Friday, with Juliana again to serve as regent.

RUSSIAN MOVE TO DEAL WITH U. S. ANALYZED

on general problems between the United States and Russia.

Marshall said that Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith had not asked Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov "for any general discussion or negotiation."

Bi-lateral Talks Avoided
Molotov had said Smith proposed discussion and negotiation and publicly announced that Russia had accepted. That was in a world-stirring Russian broadcast Monday night (Moscow Time).

"We have had a long and bitter experience with such efforts," Marshall said.

"This government had no intention of entering into bi-lateral negotiations with the Soviet government on matters relating to the interests of other governments."

"The discussion of any proposals in regard to outstanding issues which the Soviet government may have in mind, must, as a matter of course, be conducted in the body charged with responsibility for these questions."

Top Issues Outlined
This was a clear reference to the United Nations and to the various Allied bodies set up during and after the war for handling such problems as the future of Germany and Austria.

Marshall then presented the positive side of the American attitude. He asserted that "what we want is action in the fields where action is possible and urgently necessary at the present time."

He specified issues before the United Nations security council and other UN agencies, such as the Korean situation, as well as German issues before the Allied control council in Berlin and Austrian treaty negotiations.

Marshall said that he thought that the statement with reference to the future is extremely important; that the entire world will look on to see what will happen about it.

He was asked whether in view of this he thought that the Soviet government might now be ready to take action which the United States considers necessary in the United Nations and other existing agencies.

Marshall replied that he has the hope that the world now will see evidence in those fields of the spirit of reaching an accord.

Strike Of 75,000 Ties Up Chrysler

union met in special session as picket lines were thrown about Chrysler's Detroit plants.

Negotiations broke down Tuesday night on wage demands of the CIO United Auto Workers. The union scaled its 30 cent an hour demand down to 17 cents without success. The best company offer was six cents an hour.

The Chrysler production workers in 16 plants average about $15.00 an hour now.

It was the auto industry's first major strike since November, 1945, when the UAW-CIO walked out at General Motors Corp. to begin a 113-day siege.

It was the first big strike at Chrysler since 1939.

Chrysler, which has been hampered by a shortage of steel and other materials, reopened its production lines only yesterday after a four-day shutdown in most divisions.

Sources close to the industry said that if Chrysler did have to close because of a strike, it would give the company a chance to build up its stockpiles for full scale production when work is resumed.

Negotiations had been under way since Feb. 27 on the UAW's demands for a 30-cent hourly wage boost, pensions, insurance and other benefits.

Bandits Take $925, Beat Up Women On Farm Near Trufant

Rockford, Mich., May 12 (AP)—A police hunt continued today for two young bandits who escaped with $925 after beating an elderly woman at her farm near Trufant.

State police said the pair entered the home of Mrs. Fred Pimerson yesterday afternoon while her husband was away.

They threw a cloth over her head, mugged her and then searched the farm for the cash.

Twenty-five troopers were assigned to the search for the pair, believed to have fled on foot.

Mrs. Pimerson said the money had been taken from a bank Monday for a payment on some machinery.
